Target Shooting .- The State Fencibles will demonstrate their skill at Target Shooting on Saturday next. The prize is a handsome medal now in possession of the company.

State Bank of Indiana .- It will be remembered that the charter powers of the State Bank of Indiana will cease on January 1st, 1859 .persons holding notes of the bank are notifid to return them to the proper branches for redemption.

Attempted Assault with an Axe .- Night be fore last Patrick Connoly made an attempt to decapitate Frank Giles with an axe. Giles dexterously parried the blow, knocking the axe against his enemy's neck and cutting him severely. Connoly was arrested by officer Tracy, and room for the prisoners to eat in; consequently on the way to Ald. (Wilson's office, refused to they have to take their meals to the cells, and ly. Connoly was arrested by officer Tracy, and permit his locomotive appendages to operate .-He was prostrated by a powerful blow from the representative of the law, taken before the Aldby force and fined three dollars and casts.

In Luck .- A clerk in a grocery store, Wheeling, last week, on emptying a coffee sack of its contents, found two purses: one containing a note on the Royal Bank of Brazil for $1,000, and the other twelve gold pieces, about the size of the American gold dollar.

The above item has gone the rounds of the newspapers. If a rolling stone gathers no moss, a traveling item accumulates as it goes. This "in luck" was founded upon a statement made in the Intelligencer of the finding of a Brazilian note to the amount of one dollar,

Death from a Snake Bite. - We learn that a German woman residing near the Missouri Iron Works, died on Saturday evening from the effects of a snake bite received on the morning of the same day. She was gathering blackberries upon the hill side near the Sisters islands, above the city, when a large copper-head snake struck its fangs into her ancle. Everything was done that could be, but all to no purpose, and the woman died several hours after receiving Singular and Sudden Douth .- On Sunday evening last, Daniel Anderson met with a rather singular death in the 1st Ward. It seems he had been afflicted for a long time with consumption, which disabled him entirely from work. He ate his supper on the evening in question, and walked out, apparently as well as he had been for some time. He had not gone far before he was seized with a violent fit of coughing, which brought on a bleeding of the lungs, and in three minutes afterwards he expired. The deceased was a single man, and an old resident of the First Ward.

Playing Cards in a Graveyard .- A gentleman of Martinsville writes us as follows: It is indeed a beautiful place, the Martinsville burying ground. Environed by towering hills, and clover blooming meadows, it seems a fit place for the many dead that have found a resting place there; 'twas early in the day (Sunday) when I visited "God's first temples;" the sun had just kissed the silvery dew-drops-from the heavy foliage, whilst cooling zephyrs floating from over the gently flowing Ohio, seemed to render our walk more delightful. But then is it not a shame that this beautiful place should be made the scenes of such gross conduct? We saw three groups of boys and men playing cards, while deeper in the grove were young men lying as drunk as they possibly could be Such base immorality as that, in a civilized con munity, is scarcely creditable."

4142010 Killed on a Railroad .- Mr. John Yarington formerly an express messenger of the Adams' Company, and well known in this city, met with an untimely death at Sykesville, on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, early on Saturday morning. The deceased at the time of his death had charge of a western bound burthen train. At Sykesville he alighted for a few minutes when the train stopped. Upon attempting to get on again, he stepped upon some barrels, which yielding to his weight, precipitated him between the cars, when the wheels passing over one of his thighs, almost completely severed the limb. He was immediately carried to a place of safety, and surgical assistance procured, but he continued to sink for several hours, when death terminated his sufferings. The body was taken on and removed to the family residence in Baltimore. The deceased was a Baltimore policeman during the administration of Mayors Stansbury and Hollins, and has left a wife and two children. He was an honest and industrious man, and had a large circle of friends.

We do not know where this little gem comes from. It is worthy of a place in every hymn book:

There is an eye that never sleeps liencath the wing of night; There is an earthat never shuts When sinks the beach of light. There is an arm that never tires, When haman strength gives way; There is a love that never fails; When earthly loves decay. That eye is fixed on arrels' songs; The ear is fixed on angels' songs; That are uploads the world on high; That love is thrown beyond the sky.

THE INTELLIGENCER. Tribute of Repeat. - At an adjourned meeting of the Carpenters and other Mechanics of the City of Wheeling, held at Rohans Hall, July 24th 1858, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the death of William Limerick, the citizens of Wheeling have lost a man of rare acquirements as an Architect and Mechanic-one universally esteemed for his integors rity by his fellow citizens and all those with whom he had business or social intercourse, a man whose loss is deeply to be regretted by this community, and especially by the Mechan ics of this city.

Resolved, That this meeting tender their sincere condolence to the bereaved widow and rela tives of the deceased, in this grevious dispensation of Divine Providence towards them. Resolved, That the above resolutions be published in the newspapers of the city, and a copy of the same be forwarded to the bereaved wid w, by the committee of arrangement. On motion the meeting adjourned.

INCENIOUS ESCAPE PROM A STATE PRISON .-

A convict in the Wisconsin State Prison, namad Prendergast-but they say out there that he is the notorious Burt Mackay, so celebrated all over the Mississippi Valley-escaped a few nights since in an ingenious manner, but he was caught the next morning. There is no dining when they go back to work they take the dish-es back with them. At night, after supper, they are not let out again till morning; but the offi-cers go round and collect the dishes, and each prisoner must hand out his dish, unless he is soo sick to get up and do so. Prendergast got some old clothes, which he stuffed with straw and put in his bed. He then cut off a lot of his hair and put it on the head of the straw man, so that the hair stuck over the clothes a little, making a very good counterfeit of a man overed up in the bed. His dish he set up against the door, so that the officer could reach and when the latter came around he looked , and seeing the man in bed, thought it was all ight, took the dishes and locked up the straw an in place of Prendergast, who the yard in a good hiding place. After the offi-cer had gone his rounds, Prendergast succeeded in making his escape out of the prison inclosure, nobserved, and escaped under cover of the

BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT BRAGG'S ARCTIO INIMIES 1
This incomprehensible Liniment, upon which the great mass of the afflicted of all lands now rely for relief from the pangs of theumatism, Neuraigia, Gout, Erysipelas, Cancer, Scrofula, Sprains, Bulses, Burns, Scaids and all cutaneous diseases, is rapidly superseding all similar preparations. The proprietors give for the encouragement of sufferers, the following memorandum of a few of the wonderful cures effected by it during the pastfew months. Certificates from the parties named are in the possession of the proprietors, but their length precludes publication of all but a few.

One Bottle Triumphant. Mrs. Mofit, No. 345 Morgan Street, St. Louis, having uffered for three years with Rheumatism, and tried many reparations without effect, was cured by one fifty cent bot tle of Arctic Liniment

Henry Davis, Mound street, St. Louis, who says he was "suffering the pangs of purgatory" with Neuralgia, for months, was cured by three or four applications of the Arctic Limiment.

A little daughter of Mrs. Lee, residing on Lake street, of boiling water. The Arctic Limment was spalled allower by the upsetting of a kettle of boiling water. The Arctic Limment was applied according to the directions, and the fire was is uttantly extracted, and in a few days the little sufferer was well.

DYSPERSIA. DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS.

LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND FEVER AND AGUE.

Such as Indigeation, Acidity of the Stomach, Colleky Pains Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuraigic Affections, It has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely veretable compound, unwayed on strict. Bilind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, kheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on atrictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Protessor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that list ruly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of areat of life, turilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, intuning hew health and vigor in the system.

Notice.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION:

The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boechave's Holland Bitters a fair trail—One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.
